OBSERVATIONS

The main aim of the dissemination activity was to explain the project objectives and expected intellectual outputs to the potential participants of the Joint staff training event. Also the foreseen event C1- Joint staff training was explained. All the participants work in the field of agriculture and rural development (organising of training events, support of the professionals in agriculture and rural development, advisory services). They received all the essential information on the project as well as project brochures and newsletters were distributed. Most of the participants declared their interest in participation at the JST event, 4 out of them were selected.
